

This is a crude drawing of the layout approx. 7'x7'
 I thought I had another power track on the inside loop but I found it's not connect
 all other curves are full 036
 all other straights are 10"
 odd curves are configured to work around immovable objects

I will be starting a permanent layout in the basement and assume I will run into the same issues